NATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR GALWAY

JUNIOR CHAMBER GALWAY TO HOST IRISH NATIONAL CONVENTION

On October 10th next over 200 Junior Chamber members from all over Ireland will arrive in Galway for the 2003 Junior Chamber Ireland National Convention. The event which is being sponsored by Murphys Irish Stout and hosted by Junior Chamber Galway at The Galway Radisson SAS Hotel is returning to Galway for the first time since 1997 and is the biggest project on the local chapters calendar this year.

The project team under the stewardship of local member MacDara Hosty began its work last October by securing the conference for the city and since then has engaged in the process of building the conferences programme and selling both the city and the conference to Junior Chamber members both at home and abroad. The programme for the weekend will include the Pepsi Cola sponsored Outstanding Young Persons of The Year awards ceremony, a Mardi Gras style welcome party and opening ceremony, The Junior Chamber Ireland Success Seminar, the Senate Lunch and the Annual Junior Chamber Ireland Presidential Ball & Banquet.

Galway President Fiona Glynn paid tribute to all of the local sponsors including Corrib Oil, The Radisson SAS Hotel, Galway City Council and Envision who along with the events major sponsors - Murphys Irish Stout - have made it possible for the chapter to host this unique event. Commenting on the work of the project team, Ms. Glynn said "This is the culmination of a year's planning and organising by the dedicated voluntary Galway team. I am confident that all the hard work will pay off, resulting in one of the best national conferences that Junior Chamber Ireland has ever had".

Some of the events will be open to the public, if you would like more information on the conference you can visit: www.juniorchambergalway/convention.com or telephone 086 2512762.

Junior Chamber Galway meets on the second Tuesday of every month in The Ardilaun House Hotel at 8pm and new members are always welcome.
